

Annual Juried Artisan and Craft Show

Some of the best artisans and crafters in this region will be showcased at the Juried Artisan and Craft Show Fundraiser to be held Sunday, November 4, 2018, from 10:00 AM until 3:00 PM at the Ahavath Achim Synagogue in Colchester, CT.

Visit this show to see a wide variety of beautiful and unique handcrafted products including hand turned wooden bowls, pens, letter openers, pepper mills, wooden spoons and wooden kitchen utensils, cribbage boards, boxes, trays and hollow forms, hand made wooden pool cues with inlays, soaps and lotions, jewelry (including beaded, fused glass, sterling and more), photography (including prints, greeting cards, calendars and magnets), paintings, linoleum cut prints, pottery, fused glass, mezuzas, quilts, table runners, platters gourmet indian spice seasonings, pickles and jams, spice rubs, gift baskets, book signing with Books and Boos Press and much more. All products in this show are hand made by the artisans.

Lunch, snacks and home made baked goods will be available. Show admission is free. On site parking is free.

If you have any questions about this show, please contact Arlene Snyder at 860-989-0985 (text or phone) or call the synagogue office at 860-537-2809.

The synagogue is located at 84 Lebanon in Colchester.